

If all subcontractors which require licensure are not known at the time of application, it shall be the Homeowner's obligation to file an updated affidavit with the Code Enforcement Department prior to the commencement of work related to the subcontractor's trade. The Code Enforcement Department shall not perform any inspections related to the aforementioned subcontractors work until the licensure information has been submitted and verified to be accurate.

The warranty period provided under the New Home Warranty Act will not begin until the date that legal title to a home is conveyed to its initial purchaser or the date the home is first occupied, whichever occurs first, and the current homeowner may be responsible for any defects in construction to the purchaser. The specific provisions of the New Home Warranty Act may be reviewed at: http://www.lslbc.louisiana.gov/wp-content/uploads/New_Home_Warranty_Act.pdf

The entire Contractor's Licensing Law, applicable Rules and Regulations, a list of Licensed Contractors and other information may be found on the Louisiana State Licensing Board for Contractors website, at www.lslbc.louisiana.gov.

Falsification or misrepresentation of this document may leave the homeowner without recourse through the Louisiana State Licensing Board for Contractors should a dispute arise during the construction of the aforementioned project.

I further understand that the intentional act of submitting false information to a public agency may constitute a violation of applicable provisions in the Louisiana Criminal Code, subjecting the person making the false statement to imprisonment up to five (5) years, a fine up to $5,000.00, and/or restitution to the state including legal interest. La. R.S. 14:133.

This is a legally binding document and homeowners should consult with an attorney prior to signing should any questions arise.
