General Information:

I understand that this exemption does not apply to subcontractors who are still subject to licensing requirements listed below in the general information section of this affidavit.

I will serve as the contractor for home improvements to my existing residence, and/or to structures adjacent to my residence.

HOME IMPROVEMENT:

I have not built another house within the past year.

I have had a legal change in marital status within the past year.

I have had a change in employment such that the distance between my former home and new place of employment is at least fifty (50) miles.

I will serve as the contractor for the construction of a new home, will maintain the house as my personal residence following the issuance of the Certificate of Occupancy, and:

NEW CONSTRUCTION:

I understand that Louisiana law, R.S. 37:150-2192, requires that, for this proposed construction activity, the work must be performed by a person possessing a contractor's license or registration issued by the State Licensing Board for Contractors. However, I claim to be exempt from the requirement of having this work performed by a licensed or registered contractor based on the following exemption (place an X next to the exemption that you claim to be applicable):

I am applying for a building permit from the Parish/City/Town of NEW ORLEANS / ORLEANS PARISH at that certain parcel of immovable property bearing the municipal address of 4114 Clearfield St. The undersigned does hereby attest and certify that the following information is true and correct:

AFFIDAVIT CLAIMING EXEMPTION FROM LICENSURE

If all subcontractors which require licensure are not known at the time of application, it shall be the Homeowner's obligation to file an updated affidavit with the Code Enforcement Department prior to the commencement of work related to the subcontractor's trade. The Code Enforcement Department shall not perform any inspections related to the aforementioned subcontractors work until the licensure information has been submitted and verified to be accurate.

The warranty period provided under the New Home Warranty Act will not begin until the date that legal title to a home is conveyed to its initial purchaser or the date the home is first occupied, whichever occurs first, and the current homeowner may be responsible for any defects in construction to the purchaser. The specific provisions of the New Home Warranty Act may be reviewed at: http://www.lisbc.louisiana.gov/wp-content/uploads/New\_Home\_Warranty\_Act.pdf

The entire Contractor's Licensure Law, applicable Rules and Regulations, a list of Licensed Contractors and other information may be found on the Louisiana State Licensure Board for Contractors website, at www.lisbc.louisiana.gov.

Falsification or misrepresentation of this document may leave the homeowner without recourse through the Louisiana State Licensure Board for Contractors should a dispute arise during the construction of the aforementioned project.

I further understand that the intentional act of submitting false information to a public agency may constitute a violation of applicable provisions in the Louisiana Criminal Code, subjecting the person making the false statement to imprisonment up to five (5) years, a fine up to $5,000.00, and/or restitution to the state including legal interest. La. R.S. 14:133.

This is a legally binding document and homeowners should consult with an attorney prior to signing should any questions arise.
