Good morning,

1605 N. Rocheblave St. is located in a Local Historic District which is under the jurisdiction of the HDLC. I am working on the HDLC review of this project; the floor plans indicate a proposed change to the façade - including the removal of an entrance way. Please note that the removal, alteration, or obscuration of more than 25% of the historic material on the primary façade, is considered demolition, and will have to be heard by our Commission. Please submit measured elevation drawings of the existing and proposed façades, which clearly indicate the amount of proposed demolition.

Thank you -
